The Hilton Daytona Beach Oceanfront Resort will be the location where dealers and manufacturers within the public safety and law enforcement market gather to network, exhibit products and introduce new sales programs.

New Bern, NC (March 2017) – The National Association of Police Equipment Distributors (NAPED) will be holding their Annual General Meeting and Exhibition at the Hilton Daytona Beach Oceanfront Resort, June 23 – 26, 2017. “The annual meeting is a great opportunity for many of us within our industry to spend quality time with each other,” Eldon Griggs, President of NAPED and VP of Business Development for GALLS, Inc., said. He continued, “Our associate membership develops special sales programs just for this meeting and our general membership of dealers and distributors see this as a great opportunity to meet with these manufacturers personally, see the products and take advantage of the great deals only for NAPED members.”

NAPED’s General Members are a collective buying power that attracts the best deals. NAPED’s purpose is to help its members expand their markets and increase profitability.
