

National Association of Police
Equipment Distributors (NAPED)

Contact:
Laura Burgess
P: 252-288-5805
director@naped.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NAPED Welcomes Goldbelt Wolf, LLC

Goldbelt Wolf, LLC, an 8(a) Alaska Native Corporation (ANC) providing products and services to federal and commercial customers joins the National Association of Police Equipment Distributors (NAPED) and will attend Annual General Meeting

New Bern, NC (June 2017) – The National Association of Police Equipment Distributors (NAPED) proudly welcomes Goldbelt Wolf, LLC to its General Membership. Goldbelt Wolf, formed in 2007, is part of Goldbelt, Inc., a family of companies incorporated in the early 1970's and founded as an urban Alaska Native Corporation (ANC). Goldbelt Inc. was named after the richly-mineralized zone in Southeast Alaska. Headquartered in Alexandria, Virginia, Goldbelt Wolf offers customers in Federal agencies, military and law enforcement a variety of professional services and solutions from tactical and operational equipment, weapon systems and munitions, vehicles and training.

“Goldbelt Wolf proudly serves the men and women of many of our Federal agencies and elite forces. Becoming a NAPED member allows Goldbelt Wolf access to many of the top providers of high-quality, mission ready equipment,” Phil Scheible, President of Goldbelt Wolf commented.

“NAPED is very pleased to have Goldbelt Wolf join our general membership. Their customer base includes the military branches, homeland security and some of the largest private security companies. This is an excellent opportunity for our associate members to grow their businesses,” Eldon Griggs, President of NAPED and VP of Business Development for GALLS, Inc., added.

Goldbelt Wolf will be among the many law enforcement, public safety and military equipment distributors and vendors at NAPED's annual general meeting at the Daytona Hilton Beach Resort, June 23-26, 2017.

Interested in becoming a NAPED member? Contact Laura Burgess at 252-288-5805 or director@naped.com for more information and start enjoying the benefits today.

Like NAPED on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/NAPEDGroup>

About National Association of Police Equipment Distributors (NAPED):

NAPED was created by bringing together law enforcement distributors, industry professionals and manufacturers to form a network for the purpose of mutually sharing the vast amounts of market experience, resources and product knowledge comprised within its membership. NAPED acts as a forum for member manufacturers and distributors to form long-term, profitable relationships.

www.naped.com

About Goldbelt Wolf, LLC:

Goldbelt Wolf, LLC is an 8(a) Alaska Native Corporation (ANC) that cost-effectively and efficiently customizes the delivery of high quality products and services to our federal and commercial customers. Headquartered in Alexandria, Virginia, we are recognized globally for delivering customized products and service solutions to government agencies, international organizations, and commercial customers worldwide. Since our inception, Goldbelt Wolf has been focused on sustaining our heritage, customizing the delivery of products and services to our customers, and motivating our employees. We provide cost-effective solutions and outstanding performance while remaining flexible and responsive to our customers and their changing needs. We are a subsidiary of Goldbelt, Inc., which represents 3,400 Tlingit and Haida Indians of Southeast Alaska. www.goldbeltwolf.com